few, which you can use as you see best. Our esteemed friends and neighbors Prot. J. L. Pyle and his quiet little wife left us a few days since for the Orange groves of Florida. Few men ever gain as near the confidence and af he of this. It looked very much like a funeral to see them tear away from the old scholars, patrons and neighbors. We welcome to our columns our As a teacher, Christian, gentleman, Science Hall correspondent, and hope to Sunday-school worker, and temperance worker he stood at the head, We heart ily commend them to any community as

Then we are soon to lose C. G. Rich ards, the best worthy Primate the famous Science Hall council representative of the Kyle-Cook families ever had, and who is a good, true man whose advent we recently chronicled and has gained many friends, he goes to Liano county, but we predict that we will out bait those Llauoites and get him back, as we think he is worth fishing for. Then Mountain City comes in with its long face, weeping over the loss (temporary we hope) of Rev. Roach and tamily and of H. E Barber, (our worthy sheriff.) who have moved off one above Austin, the other to San Marcos They have long made their influence telt for good in our midst as faithful Sanday school workers, and We owe much of our prosperity to their unceasing efforts, and their places will be hard

Notwithstanding the bad weather our community appears to be in better condition financially than for years ; eve ry body appears to have some money plenty to eat and wear and fine health stock is doing well. Mrs. Andrews is pushing shead with her school with her usual unflinching zeal. We are mad with the railroad for not giving us a depot at a central place and calling it Mountain City, but Kyle City beat us and we hope they will treat us so well, in giving us good prices for our produce. and selling goods so cheap, that we will be like pouting children when ma givethem a big lump of sugar.

DR PIERCE, Buffalo, N 1:

Dear Sir—I write this to inform you that my child, one year old, has been permanently cured of the fever and ague in a weeks' time, and the use of but half a bottle of your Golden Medical Discovery. My wife, a lone sufferer from liver complaint and biliousness, by the use of the Discovery and Pellets has been entirely relieved. The Discovery has never disappointed us for coughs and colds. Yours truly.

Lippincott's Magazine. Lippincott's Magazine for December opens with an interesting and finely il ustrated paper entitled 'An Historical Rocky Mountain Outpost, by George Rex Buckunn. Another illustrated article, Our Grandfathers' Temples, by Charles F. Richardson, is a very read able account of the oldest places of worship still existing in the county. Will Democracy Tolerate a Permanent Class of National Officeholders? is a challenge to the Civil Service R stormers, which cannot fail to attract attention as which cannot fail to attract attention as an able expose of the ideas on which our present system appears to be founded, and which the Reformers will have to and which the Reformers will have to take into account if they hope to effect any radical change in the practice hitherto followed by both parties. 'The Authors of Froulrou,' by J. Brander Matthews, has a timely interest in connection with Sara Berahardt's performances. Other papers deserving of notice are 'Gas Burning and its Consequences.' by Georie J. Varney. 'An Episode of Spanish Chivalry,' by Prot. T. F. Crane; the conclusion of Dr H. C. Wood's exposition of 'Automatism;' and a contribution to Shakepearian and a contribution to Shakspearian studies by Prof James D Butler The popular setial, 'Adam and Eve,' reaches a dramatic and satisfactory termination in this number, which also contains sev eral striking stories, including a thor oral striking stories, including a rad-oughly realistic sketch of Edinburgh street life, by the author of 'Plitters. Tatters, and the Counsellor.' The 'Monthly Gossip' is unusually full and entertaining. With the January num-ber this Magazine will enter on a new series, at a reduced price and with the promise of creater attractiveness and wider claims to popularity.
